

Boots

While dog is standing, measure from the front edge of the small pads to the back edge of the large pad (do not include the nails). We recommend placing the foot on a piece of paper, marking the paper at the front and back of the foot, and then measuring between marks on the paper.

